The Glass House, Denver, CO

Life at The Glass House, one of Denver's most iconic and centrally located urban communities, puts you at the heart of the very best of downtown living-in the heart of Riverfront Park with ample green space, walking and biking trails out your front door, and riverside access to Cherry Creek and the South Platte, offering a daily dose of sunshine and scenery. Just a short walk away is the Union Station neighborhood, home to the city's best dining, premium boutiques, entertainment venues, Whole Foods, and just a short walk from LoHi, LoDo, Ball Arena and the Light Rail with direct service to DIA.

This unmatched access makes this stunning 16th-floor corner unit a city-dweller's dream, flooded with natural light thanks to wrap-around, floor-to-ceiling windows on two entire, exterior walls providing direct views of the city skyline and the mountains, and making it the ideal perch for sipping morning coffee from your sunny balcony or taking in the energy of downtown and even Coors Field's Fourth of July fireworks.

Freshly painted walls and cabinetry accentuate rich hardwood flooring with industrial-style ceilings that create the ultimate urban-loft vibe. Equal parts hip and cozy, a spacious, open floorplan lives large throughout the main kitchen, living, and dining areas with an island for entertaining and space for an oversized sofa. Both bedrooms feature their own ensuite baths for privacy whether hosting a guest or bunking with a roommate.

The building's ample amenities include 24/7 front desk and concierge services on hand to assist with everything from dry cleaning pick-up and drop-off to greeting Door Dashers, Amazon and grocery deliveries and more. On the spacious, private Club Level, enjoy access to your very own outdoor lap pool and club room, oversized fire pit, and barbecue grills. Or work up a sweat at the Riverfront Athletic Club; 2 memberships included w/ownership.

Don't miss this rare gem at the heart of it all, ready to welcome you home.
