Welcome to 4896 Stonehill, where Old World artisanship meets modern luxury. This extraordinary residence showcases antique architectural treasures and custom features throughout. A hand-carved stone door surround frames the oversized entrance, complemented by gas copper lighting and a stone wall fountain. The flagstone patio and walled garden create a private sanctuary. Soaring 10-21 foot ceilings grace the first floor, with 9-foot ceilings upstairs. Travertine flooring with radiant heating, oversized 8-foot doors, and authentic Venetian plaster installed by artisans from Venice, define the interior. The foyer features hand-carved railing and ironwork from France with custom Tibetan carpeting. The living room showcases a hand-carved limestone fireplace and antique Chinese Compound doors concealing a wet bar. The family room offers hand-hewn wood ceilings. The chef's kitchen includes custom inset cabinets, marble-topped table, and granite countertops with Pikes Peak views. The outdoor patio features a built-in cooking center with gas grill and stone countertops. The service area includes a dog room with plumbing connected to an outdoor run, coat closet, and gift wrapping center. Upstairs, the primary suite opens to a balcony with waterfall and Pikes Peak views. The spa bathroom includes radiant heat and hidden TV. The custom maple closet features 46 drawers with in-closet laundry, connecting to a workout room. Two guest suites offer Juliet balconies and ensuite baths. One features a vanity from antique French railing with freestanding tub. The theater room provides tiered seating and projection system behind an antique Moroccan door. An additional bonus/craft room is located upstairs. It can easily be converted to an additional bedroom. The wine cellar houses racking for over 500 bottles. The lot is amazing. It is private and backs to open space with direct views of Pikes Peak.
