Welcome to this beautifully maintained bi-level home in the desirable Security-Widefield area, offering a perfect blend of comfort, charm, and stunning Pikes Peak views.

Step inside to the entry level featuring a bright window, convenient garage access, and an easy flow into the main living spaces. The upper level boasts vaulted ceilings, wood floors, and skylights that fill the home with natural light. The kitchen features stainless steel appliances, a pantry, and stylish tile backsplashes in the bathrooms for a modern touch.

The lower-level family room offers the perfect gathering space with a cozy gas fireplace and French doors that open to the backyard. Outdoor living is at its best here – enjoy a large deck, expansive paver patio, and a terraced, fully fenced backyard complete with a storage shed. The artificial turf front yard provides great curb appeal with low maintenance, while the extra-long driveway adds ample parking space.

Located close to parks and schools, this home combines functionality with inviting style – ideal for those looking to enjoy Colorado living with mountain views right from their doorstep.
