Residential on 0.10 Acres

Sanctuary of Peace, Colorado Springs, CO

Nestled in the tranquil ponderosa pines of Black Forest, the paired patio homes of Sanctuary of Peace offer a rare opportunity to live in harmony with nature, just minutes from the heart of Colorado Springs. Recently completed, these thoughtfully designed residences reflect the spirit of simplicity, sustainability, and sacred space that defines the vision of Benet Hill Monastery.

Each home is crafted for low-maintenance, main-level living with modern comforts and a deep connection to the natural world. Expansive windows invite the outdoors in, framing views of towering pines and open skies. The Gourmet Kitchen offers you the warmth of Wood Flooring, the strength of Quartz Counters, the efficiency of an Induction Range with Convection Oven, and the capacity of Maple Cabinets which touch the vaulted ceiling. The high-efficiency Tankless Water Heater, Furnace, and AC systems empower you to manage energy use, while the above-standard insulation throughout the residence and between the common wall contribute to solitude and comfort.

From the ground up, these residences are built with intention - using quality materials and timeless design principles that support well-being, reflection, and community. Walking trails, meditation spaces, and common areas are woven throughout the 45-acre site, offering peaceful places for quiet retreat or shared connection with neighbors.

Homeowners in Sanctuary of Peace are part of a unique legacy - where every aspect of development respects the land, and embraces values of compassion, beauty, and simplicity.

Discover a home that nourishes the soul as much as it shelters the body. Sanctuary of Peace is more than a place to live - it's a place to belong.
