Trestle, Colorado Springs, CO

Why rent when you can own a piece of history in downtown Colorado Springs? Prime opportunity to own nearly 1400 SF of adjoining office space in the lower level of the historic Trestle Building located in the heart of the Colorado Springs Arts District. The two units are connected at a common conference room and combine vintage character with modern functionality—perfect for professionals, creatives, or small businesses looking for a cost-effective downtown footprint. Just steps from the downtown Central Business District, America the Beautiful Park, with stunning Pikes Peak views just outside your door. Another bonus: Ample on-site parking, a true luxury for downtown.

The Trestle Building backs to active train tracks, adding an authentic city edge that creatives and urban professionals will appreciate.

Monthly association dues are very reasonable and include all utilities except phone and internet. The building is wired for fiber with additional service options from Xfinity and CenturyLink. Select furnishings may be included—just move in and get to work. Use one suite and lease the other, or combine both for a larger space, making it ideal for owner-users or investors alike.

Whether you're expanding your business or launching a new venture, this unique downtown office space offers location, flexibility, and value in one smart package. Schedule a showing today and imagine your business thriving in the heartbeat of Colorado Springs.
