5 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 1,718 sqft

Residential on 0.18 Acres

Southborough, Colorado Springs, CO

Tucked into the established Southborough neighborhood of Colorado Springs, this bi-level home tells a story of comfort, connection, and everyday convenience—now reimagined with thoughtful, high-quality updates that make it shine.

From the moment you arrive, the extra-wide driveway and well-kept exterior create a sense of welcome, offering space for guests, hobbies, or simply the ease of coming home. Step inside, and you™ll immediately notice the care and craftsmanship that have gone into making this home feel brand new.

Every corner has been refreshed—from the new paint and trim throughout to the new carpet with high grade padding and hardwood-style manufactured flooring that bring warmth and continuity to each level. The kitchen features brand-new appliances, pairing modern convenience with a fresh, inviting style. Both bathrooms have been beautifully updated with new cabinets, fixtures, and valves, and high-quality tile, while the new plumbing under the basement concrete ensures peace of mind for years to come.

The home features new electrical panels inside and out, a new hot water heater with expansion tank, newer windows, and an upgraded garage door system. Even the basement drywall has been newly installed—creating a clean, polished space ready for your personal touch.

The lower level offers endless possibilities: a cozy family room for movie nights, and three bedrooms.

Step outside, and the story continues in your own private yard—perfect for morning coffee on the deck, summer barbecues, or afternoons spent playing and relaxing.

Beyond your doorstep, you™ll love the convenience of being minutes from Academy Boulevard and the Powers Corridor, with easy access to Peterson Space Force Base, Fort Carson, The Citadel Mall, and First & Main Town Center. Outdoor escapes like Van Diest Park, Wildflower Park, and the Sand Creek Trail are just a short walk or bike ride away.
